

Work and Organizations Division COMMUNITY LEAD:

Role Description: This year, IPPA will introduce a new online platform for its members to connect with each other and engage with the larger global positive psychology community. The Work and Organizations Division is currently recruiting two volunteer Community Leads to join the leadership team to help establish, maintain, and grow community engagement on this platform.

Working closely with the Division's Communication Lead, the Community Leads' responsibilities will include:

- Leading the discussion and establishment of user guidelines, and moderating online forum to uphold those guidelines
- Tracking usage and user interest
- Managing existing online content
- Identifying potential new content areas and features
- Communicating key information related to other Work and Organization Division initiatives and programming as appropriate
- Appointing and coordinating volunteers to assist with the above

Experience with web applications or content management systems (CMS) and/or social media is a plus.

Qualifications:

- Members interested in serving in this role must be a member of the Division
- Individuals should be knowledgeable about IPPA's mission and the Work and Organization's goals to operationalize that mission.
- Individuals should have previous experience with web applications or content management systems (CMS) and/or social media is a plus.
- Individuals should display patience, flexibility and commitment

To Apply:

Please email workdiv@ippanetwork.org with any questions and to express your interest in this role. Learn more about the division here.